"The following information contained herein is within my own personal knowledge and relates only to facts and circumstances surrounding the Grievance submitted by Andrew Krowne on 6/16/16 regarding Porter Ranch Neighborhood Council."

I went to the "pop up poll" with my sister on Friday June 10, 2016. The pop up poll was located in the small lobby of Coldwell Banker and Toll Brothers. Once we arrived, I noticed people coming out of Coldwell Banker to vote with a sheet of paper. Some not so discrete as others. I saw it was the same paper for everyone. I couldn't see what the paper said, but could see 5 names, because they were in bold and a much larger print. The names on the list were Karen Yu, Mel Mitchell, Becky Leveque, Sue Hammerlin and Assad Alnajjar. The bottom of the letter was signed by Ken, which I later found out was the head guy at Coldwell Banker. As I was waiting for my sister, a female employee of Coldwell Banker was waiting in line to vote. An employee that was just getting to work asked her if she was voting. She replied, "He's making us all vote." Another female employee that was in line to vote, told another coworker "I just came to do something fast, but he's making me vote." The coworker told her, "You don't have to if you don't want to" and she replied "Yeah right. I don't even care about any of this." There was a lot of commotion going on in such a small space. Between people voting, employees coming in and out, a UPS guy delivering a 50+ inch flat screen to Coldwell Banker and an employee pulling up her car in the red zone to load boxes..... I couldn't believe this was an actual polling place.

I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. I understand that all information on this form is public record.
